

WAIVER & RELEASE

STATE OF TEXAS

COUNTY OF DALLAS

The United Masonry Contractors Association, (“UMCA”) is sponsoring an event known as the “Family Day and Bricklaying Contest” at which professional and amateur bricklayers will compete to demonstrate skill in masonry construction, and guests and visitors will observe the contest and participate in family and children’s activities.

By executing this waiver and release, the undersigned, acting in his or her personal capacity, and as parent or guardian of a child or children who will be at or around the Bricklaying Contest, acknowledges and otherwise assumes the risks and dangers inherent and which are a part of being on or around contests, games and construction operations of this nature. Furthermore, the undersigned hereby consents to allow their child(ren) and minor(s) to participate in such activities, and further agrees that this consent shall constitute a bar to any recovery, suit, action, or cause of action that may be instituted by him or her as a result of any act or omission of himself or herself, his or her child, any other child, that of the UMCA, or any person acting in concert with it, or any other person or entity. This waiver and release is intended to be as broad as allowed by Texas law, includes a waiver and release of any action, suit, or cause of action which could be brought for injury or death that may be caused by the contributory negligence, and even the sole negligence of the UMCA, and any of its officers, directors, representatives, employees, or agents.

As such, the Undersigned hereby forever waives, discharges, releases and acquits the United Masonry Contractors Association, including its predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, employees, agents, representatives, shareholders, and assigns, and any other person or entity acting on its behalf, from any and all liabilities, claims, causes of action, contracts, demands, rights, damages, costs, expenses, and actions, at law or in equity, known or unknown, that exist or may exist in the future, arising out of the actions, events, and/or occurrences as set forth above.
